EMMANUEL CHURCH SALISBURY

SALISBURY CONFERENCE 2026

2nd - 4th October

Theme: The Ministry of the Holy Spirit

VISITING PREACHER

Pastor John Greer

(Pastor Emeritus of Ballymena Free Presbyterian Church, Northern Ireland)

CONFERENCE INVITATION

We hope that you will be able to join us for this year's conference which is upon the theme of the Ministry of the Holy Spirit. The importance of the Spirit's work in the believer's heart cannot be overstated. John Owen rightly said, "The Holy Spirit is the great beautifier of souls". In all elements of the Christian life, we do wholly and constantly depend upon the unseen work of the Holy Spirit. Anything that, by grace, is done for God, is "Not by might, nor by power, but by my spirit, saith the Lord of hosts." (Zech. 4:6)

Please join us in praying that the Lord will bless the conference with the outpouring of His Spirit, to the glory of our God.

With warm greetings in Christ Jesus,

Rev. Daniel Tribe, Minister of Emmanuel Church

CONFERENCE SCHEDULE

Friday 2nd October

7.30pm Reformed, But Always Being Reformed

An address with words framed by Dutch Theologian Jodocus Van Lodenstein (1620-1677). Who is he, and what does the statement "Reformed" truly mean?

Followed by tea and coffee

Saturday 3rd October

Online Christian Bookshop

<https://christianbookshopossett.co.uk/>

About us

We sell new and second-hand books for adults and children, supplying Reformed (Calvinistic) literature as well as more general evangelical books. Whilst we champion Baptist authors, we showcase many others also who exalt the truths of free and sovereign grace. We believe that this is the best expression of biblical Christianity. To buy from us supports a small independent business which is on the high street as well as online. We have taken great pains to assemble books that are not easily available otherwise in the UK. Come and have a look around our online shop.

How to Order

By phone, email, post, or directly from our website.
