Online Christian Bookshop

https://christianbookshopossett.co.uk/

About us

We sell new and second-hand books for adults and children, supplying Reformed (Calvinistic) literature as well as more general evangelical books. Whilst we champion Baptist authors, we showcase many others also who exalt the truths of free and sovereign grace. We believe that this is the best expression of biblical Christianity. To buy from us supports a small independent business which is on the high street as well as online. We have taken great pains to assemble books that are not easily available otherwise in the UK. Come and have a look around our online shop.
